Create Your Own Online Safety Comic Story!

Welcome to the exciting world of online safety, where you get to become a comic book creator and learn about staying safe on the internet in a fun and creative way! In this activity book, you'll find 46 blank comic strip pages waiting for you to fill them with your own imaginative stories. Whether you're battling cyber monsters, exploring the digital realm, or making new online friends, you'll learn important lessons about staying safe online while having a blast.

Instructions:

Step 1: Understanding Online Safety

Before you start creating your comic strip stories, let's learn some essential online safety rules.

1. Keep Personal Information Secret: Never share your real name, address, school, or any personal information with anyone online.

2. Be Kind Online: Treat others how you want to be treated. Use kind words and avoid mean or hurtful comments.

3. Check with a Grown-Up: Always ask a grown-up before clicking on links, downloading anything, or giving permission to access your device.

4. Choose Strong Passwords: If you have accounts online, create strong passwords by combining letters, numbers, and symbols.

Step 2: Let Your Imagination Soar:

Now it's time to create your own online safety comic strips! Use the blank comic strip pages to tell stories that teach important lessons about staying safe on the internet.

Examples and Suggestions:

1. The Cyber Heroes: Create characters who are superheroes in the digital world, protecting it from cyber monsters who try to steal personal information. Show how they use their strong passwords and shield of kindness to defeat the monsters.

2. The Online Explorer: Imagine a character who goes on exciting adventures through websites and apps. Teach a lesson about only visiting safe and trusted places online.

3. Digital Friendship: Tell a story about making friends online, emphasizing the importance of checking with a grown-up before sharing any information.

4.The Kindness Quest: Showcase characters spreading positivity online and standing up against cyberbullying.

Step 3: Bring Your Comic to Life:

Use colors, markers, and crayons to make your comic strip vibrant and exciting. Don't forget to give your characters fun expressions and create speech bubbles to show what they're saying.

Step 4: Share and Learn:

Once you've finished your comic strip stories, share them with friends, family, or even your teacher. Discuss the lessons you've learned about online safety and listen to their thoughts too!

Remember, creating these comic strips is not only a creative adventure but also a great way to become an online safety expert. Have fun, be imaginative, and stay safe in the digital world!
